Never saw the pool table, let alone the queue.

Already he has an agent in Austria and says he is exporting around 50,000 litres of the oil a year there. Both the oil and tablet have been certified as traditional medicines.

There is a donation box sitting in the small waiting room, and you can see that many who turn up here are elderly locals who normally couldn't afford any kind of treatment. Many times people left and nothing went into the donation box. Khun Ruay says nothing; he does this to help people, and knows that those who can afford to do so will always put a little something in the box to help him out.

A father of three children, his wife died two years ago and now Ruay concentrates on the massages and putting his children through school. He is teaching his eldest son the ropes, but is pleased that he is also presently working as a cook at the Amanpuri Resort.

Just looking at the 52 year-old you can see he is a very fit man. All those years on the boats and everyday massaging has made him that way.

He starts at 6am and continues through to 9pm. I asked him what he did after work to relax himself. He says he likes to go fishing or just goes down to sit on the beach. He says he could get rich from what he does but when he sits on the beach is just happy in the knowledge that he frees people from their suffering.

Khun Ruay can be contacted on 076 325 232 or 09 591 9283. You will never find the house otherwise.

Just The Odd Quote...

To be stupid, selfish, and have good health are three requirements for happiness, though if stupidity is lacking, all is lost.
Gustave Flaubert (1821 - 1880)

A cynic is a man who, when he smells flowers, looks around for a coffin.
H. L. Mencken (1880 - 1956)

Cynics regarded everybody as equally corrupt... Idealists regarded everybody as equally corrupt, except themselves.
Robert Anton Wilson

Always do sober what you said you'd do drunk. That will teach you to keep your mouth shut.
Ernest Hemingway (1899 - 1961)

Drinking makes such fools of people, and people are such fools to begin with, that it's compounding a felony.
Robert Benchley (1889 - 1945)

Save a little money each month and at the end of the year you'll be surprised at how little you have.
Ernest Haskins

Money frees you from doing things you dislike. Since I dislike doing nearly everything, money is handy.
Groucho Marx (1890 - 1977)

I have enough money to last me the rest of my life, unless I buy something.
Jackie Mason (1934 -)

No matter how rich you become, how famous or powerful, when you die the size of your funeral will still pretty much depend on the weather.
Michael Pritchard
