

Around The Traps

Steve was pleasantly surprised with the large turnout at his birthday party last month held at the Palm Tree Restaurant on Nanai Road in Patong the Thai side quickly had them sent on their way via their usual shipping agent.

Thinking the deal was done and everything was going smoothly, the company manager in Thailand was quite surprised to receive a phone call from the now flustered manager in Japan.

"What are you doing to me?", the manager barked down the phone. "I ordered 500 boxes of drink coolers and you send me 500 boxes of condoms!"

Initially a little confused, it only took a second for the penny to drop. The Thai manager suggested he open the boxes to check the contents and he may find they are drink coolers.

The shipping agent, bless his heart, had looked at the consignment and labeled it what drink coolers or stubby holders are known colloquially as in Thailand; Condoms.

and 200 baht for caddy fees. They have several awards on the day; closest to the pin (on the 2nd, 5th, 14th, 17th), longest drive, best gross score, and the peanut award (for the dumbest thing done on course).

You can either turn up at the course or be at Legends at 11:30am for a lift out there. For more details call Dunny on 07 897 2652 or

For those with a bit of time on their hands and interested in golf, there is a regular Thursday afternoon round being played at the Phuket Country Club in Kathu.

Organised by the crew at Legends in Patong, the afternoon kicks off around midday. Usually there is anywhere between 6 - 12 players and it will cost 1190 baht for the round (plus 400 baht if you need to hire clubs)

It looks like the era of the Blarney Stone may be coming to an end. Irish/American John has had this little bar on the Bangla Road strip since around 1990 and the bar is really nothing to look at. In fact if you didn't see the sign you would think it was a storeroom for other bars in the area. But it does have its following as a place where you can just sit and watch the passing parade without being pestered by ladies of the night. From what we've been told, the landlord wants to up the lease to 1.5 million baht per year and to top it off, get three years in advance.

More birthdays than you can poke a stick at. Henry (rear with glass raised) celebrated his with friends at the Relax Bar in Soi Easy this month.

Ouch!!
