

Where Are We...

Two more earlier photos of Patong in quieter times.

The top one is from the other end of Bangla Road from the one we posted last issue. This time it is taken from where the Pizza Co. outlet is today and was taken in 1989.

The one below goes back even further to 1980 when low key bungalow development was all you would see along the beach road in Patong. Still some things don't change, there are still old bald men walking around.

If you have any old photos from Phuket that you would like to have shown here, we would like to see them.

You can email them to us at: info@andamanpost.com
