

The Mens Pool League finished up last month with the windup party held at the Anchor Bar in Kata; Above: Part of the Shakers team enjoying the evening. They ended up second overall to the team from Anchor Bar;
Above Right: We're not sure whether Gary from the Offshore Bar was trying to add an extra lucky dip to the prize table or claim one; can knock back as many free Tequila and Rocket Fuel shooters as you can handle. There are two bars onboard, an air-conditioned dance club and a mega sound system. Probably the reason you need to go offshore a bit. So, for 1,500 baht you can party on until the sun comes up.
Left: 'Ball', the youngest player in the league, took the gong for overall best player.

 One of the joys of working for a magazine is being able to try out and experience new events and attractions as they are introduced to Phuket. The simulated war game of paintball has been here awhile, but a new version in a similar vein featuring laser guns has just opened up next door to
