

through affected areas recently with 'Tsunami Relief' written across the back.

If you want to help in any way there are two ladies, Ingrid and Lynne (see story Page 6), presently staying at DD Swiss Resort who you can get in touch with and work something out.

*****

On the southern edge of Patong Bay there is a little private beach called Paradise beach. There is now road access there whereas before the only access was by longtail boat. This little beach suffered tsunami damage inasmuch as a lot of the debris sucked off Patong beach ended up there. One of the items that was deposited on the beach was a TV set. When a visiting tourist remarked that it was amazing that a TV had made it intact into the little bay, the reply was that it wasn't amazing at all. When asked why the reply from the local lass was 'Because it didn't work!'.
Continued Page 20

It's worthwhile checking prices there if you decide to go as strangely prices seem to rise in the low season and they have been known to stick a 10% service charge onto the bill. Service? What service - we think they add the charge because you've woken them up.

*****

If you need any reason to stay off Chang beer in the tropics then maybe you should read the following. The local beer is quite a potent brew and runs to about 7% alcohol. One local drinker, who has been here a little longer than he should, consumes a fair amount on a daily basis. One afternoon while finishing off another of the brain relieving brews, he spots two lovely ladies and instantly falls in love

CAT BAR PATONG

★★★★★

OPEN EVERYDAY TILL LATE

CAT 1 - Sawadeerak Rd.
CAT 2 - Soi Easy
CAT 3 - Nanai 2 Rd.
CAT 4 - Nanai Rd.
Patong Beach, Phuket

Play pool at
CAT Bar 1 and CAT Bar 4
Contact: Mai or Paul 04 182 8703

Top: The Galion, run by Jerome has one of the more interesting decors around.

Above: The band playing nightly at The Galion is full of talent and pumps out the music.

Quote of the Day
(Taken from the Pattaya Trader)

I almost had a psychic girl-friend, but she left me before we met.

MILLENNIUM BAR

SOI ERIC, Bangla Rd.
Patong Beach, Phuket
Tel: TH 08 138 4290
Email: poison_ivy191@hotmail.com