tickets are sold, we figure. The registration form was the one that got us through. Under the section where they ask you what your status is here, there are three options; Tourist, Resident or Bar Girl! When it comes to figuring out the demographics for a free motorbike, Bar Girl would have to be major group.

If Tea and Scones is more your idea for an afternoon, then you shouldn't go past Sheila's Restaurant on the ground floor of the Geo Guesthouse in Soi Sansabai in Patong. Sheila uses traditional West Country Devon style clotted cream with her scones and those with a taste for these things say the difference is quite noticeable. Considering the size of Thailand this next statement is a big one, but as far as they know, they are the only place in Phuket doing this and some are saying the only place in Thailand. I'm sure we'll hear if it isn't.

Top: Taken from one of the two restaurants overlooking Kata Noi, main road just before view point.
Below: On the track between Patong and Chalong, going over the mountain. It has two very steep sections, one up and the other down, depending on which way you are going. Only recommended for trail bikes. We burnt out the automatic clutch on one scooter attempting this run - so be warned.

As you enter Rydges Beach Resort Phuket all tensions melt away. The architecture of this newly refurbished resort blends perfectly with its natural surrounds. Set amongst established gardens and coconut palms, the hotel's stylish open plan lobby welcomes guests and creates a distinctly Thai ambience. Step outside your room and onto the white sand of Bang Tao Beach and into the clear waters of the Andaman Sea. With two large pools and absolute beach frontage, water activities at this resort are endless.
