

A Guide To Good Food Around Phuket

It's coming to Best Breakfast time of the year again and we would like to invite you to submit where you think the best breakfasts on the island are. We will check them out and put the Top 5 in the next issue.

After talking with many people, they have asked for a few more Top 5's. For example; the Top 5 places to get a hamburger, Top 5 Budget guesthouses (that are value for money), Top 5 pubs or bars (that don't rip you off or water down the drinks), Top 5 places to get the coldest beer, Top 5 restaurants (where you can eat without breaking the bank), Top 5 places to sit and while away the afternoon, Top 5 place for a quiet swim, etc... Anyway, you get the idea. Send your ideas or Top 5's to info@andamanpost.com and we will start publishing them next issue.
