

The usual suspects at Ott's birthday show at the Dragon Club

We immediately changed over to the new cable operator as lots of new channels were promised and a better service was guaranteed.

Well, we were just about to extol the virtues of the new Blue Dolphin Cable when on October 1st they started doing the same thing as PA Cable before them used to do with monotonous regularity, and that is changing all their channels around and dropping the only few that farang feel are worth watching. Blue Dolphin advertised Star Sports but we never got it, just a lot of Super Sports channels with all the sports you never want to watch.

But we will give them time as we have just noticed a new movie channel pop up on screen. Oops, Gone again!

We'll have to wait and see what happens tomorrow, but it is good to have some competition.
