

TOP 5 - PLACES TO EAT

International

Angus O'Tool's - Opposite Islandia Park Resort, Karon
Nicely presented superb food. The chef used to run the Beefeater around the corner which was regarded as one of the best restaurants on the island.

Montes - Phisitkorrane Rd. cnr Hasip Pee Patong
Only opened a couple of months ago but we keep getting good reports about the food.

Swiss Chalet - 9th floor Sky Inn Patong
This place received many recommendations from readers. Obscure location at the top of the run down Sky Inn but worth the trip.

Tavern on the Hill - 21 Hasipee Rd Patong
Be it breakfast, lunch or an evening meal you really can't go wrong here. Their Thai menu would also rank in the Top 5 for Thai restaurants as well.

Tipsy Prawn - Thawee Wong Rd. Patong
It has just relocated to the beach side in the Sandy House arcade. Everyone who has had a meal there has raved about the place and you can't get a better recommendation than that.

TOP 5 - PLACES TO CHILL OUT

Friendship Beach - Chalong

Between Chalong and Rawai, this place is perfect for an afternoon. It has plenty of room and a pool you can use if you use their bar or restaurant services. Perched right on the waters edge, you can gaze at the islands in the bay or watch the horses trot past from the nearby riding school.

Paradise Beach - Patong

A quiet little family run bay at the south end of Patong bay. It is now accessible by car or bike and despite their 10% service charge on everything is still a great place to get away from it all.

Surin Beach - Surin

Our pick for watching the sunset. Sit at Carl's fruit juice bar overlooking the beach and you'll end up running into half of the Surin locals doing the same thing.

Hilltop Hotel - Patong

Sit out on the terrace overlooking Patong for a great view and the drinks are reasonably priced.

Small View/ After Beach - Kata

These two located next door to each other are on the hill behind Kata Noi and have reggae music wafting through the air as you balance precariously on the hillside.
