

TOP 5 - Places to Eat

Thai Food

Pan Yah - Kalim

On the road out of Patong towards Kamala past Kalim. Reasonably priced. Good ambience

Lair Lay Tong - Soi Wattana Patong

Lims Restaurant - Kalim

Red Onion Restaurant - Karon

Hori Seafood - Soi Esaan off Bangla Rd. opp Soi Sea Dragon

Nothing much to look at in a Soi that is hard to find even when you know where it is. Friendly staff and service and the food is very tasty.

Best Shopping

Supercheap - Thepkrasattri Rd - north of Phuket City

Wines, prescription drugs and whatever else you can find in this labyrinth of a store.

Makro - Wichitsongkram Rd. (4020)

Warehouse style shop on the road between Phuket City and Patong near Central.

Dons Mall - Sai Yon Rd. Rawai

Great steaks so we are told.

Things TO Do

Phuket Fantasea - Kamala

Haven't heard of anyone say this is not a good show

Gibbon Sanctuary - Soi Namtok Bang Pae

Set up in 1992 by zoologist TD Morin but now run by the Wild Animal Rescue Foundation of Thailand, the sanctuary retrains gibbons to live back in the wild. About 70 gibbons onsite, you can't actually go in, defeats the purpose of returning to the wild. Bang Pae waterfall is next door.

Khao Khad Lookout - Off Pattana Uthit 1 Rd., Panwa

Great 360 degree views from Phuket City to Panwa Cape

Thalang National Museum - Pakhlok Rd., 200 metres east of Heroines Monument, Thalang.

Showcase of Phuket's history and culture

Places to get obscure items

Phuket City Market - opposite the Thai Airways office, lots of interesting shops

Supercheap - Thepkrasattri Rd - north of Phuket City

A real rabbit warren of aisles and alleyways. Started as a small shop and just grew from there, no renovation just added sheds as needed. Can get very hot but the bargains are there.
