The Year That Was

It has been an interesting year, to say the least. It has been a year of building and rebuilding. We all lost friends and family in last year's devastating tsunami.

Everybody's life has been affected one way or another from this event. We have battled on throughout the past year, some have made it and some haven't. Some hung in there until just recently but just couldn't go any further.

But through it all I think we all knew that Phuket was a special place and would survive, it was just whether we would be here when it came good. The Thai people taught us a lesson that life goes on and you have to make the best of it.

Old friends have been replaced by new, old businesses have been bought out by new owners and the cycle starts again. So what is to happen in the next year? There is little point worrying about it, you can't change what is going to happen, you are pretty much just along for the ride, so enjoy it. I know the rest of us do.

To all readers of the Andaman Post, we would like to wish you all a Happy and Prosperous New Year and may all your hopes and dreams come true.
