

as soon as they got hold of my money they weren't going to open another next door. But apparently there is a method there from what we have been told. Once a store reaches a certain number of daily customers, then a new one can open in the same area. We can only hope that the figures were taken over a longer period than just the high season.

Nanai Sports Bar has been running a promotion for the past month on a two-for-one on beers (5PM - 7PM) and considering they are 70 baht, makes it quite cheap. Whether the promotion is still on or not by the time you read this we don't know. It was going to be stopped before Songkran, but was still running at press time.

Dirty Nellies has undergone a complete rebuild and even looks like a real bar now. It looks like Patsy has sorted out the lease situation and has put some money into the refurbishment.

Just off Nanai Rd and down the lane to the Rock'n'Bowl and the Boxing stadium, the World Bungy upgrade continues. Not on the tower which was upgraded before high season, but the grounds around it. A new roof has been added to join two buildings making for a huge usable space even if it rains and it looks like one end is getting a massive screen put in for sports telecasts. It all sounds good for the coming wet season.

Still with Patong, Montes on the back road at the corner of Hasipee Rd., has been putting out a great BBQ on Saturdays and Sundays. At 250 baht for an All-you-can-eat meal it has to be one of the best value meals around at the moment. We dropped in there last week and it was superb with kebabs, pork steaks, marinated chicken prawns, and sausages on offer.

A new addition to Montes is their Wine and Tapas Bar. They have joined forces with a local wine distributor where Montes put on the Tapas and the distributor provides the wine to suit. With an extensive range of wines available from all over the world, we look forward to seeing what they come up with.

On the last Sunday of each month, The Nok & Chicken Sports Bar at the Sky

Inn Complex is putting on a free BBQ. Once again being off the main tourist strip means reasonably priced drinks so this will be good value as well. It is looking fairly barren down the approach road to the Sky
