In Remembrance

Eddie Smith (63) - A Patong resident for about 10 years. A regular at Legends Bar and as of late at the Irish Bar on Rat-U-Thit Rd. Hailed from Geraldton in Western Australia and had the distinction of having the 2004 tsunami sink his boat in Australia while he was here. He knew the island very well and showed us on more than one occasion some of the hidden treasures this island has to offer. RIP

From Paul Cook re Philip Martin Cook

I was so pleased to see my brother, Philip Martin Cook, get a mention in your Remembrance pages.

I attended his cremation in Thailand but spent only a week there and returned home to the UK far too quickly. Whilst there, I met a lot of my brother's friends and was really happy to know my brother's last few years were spent with some sound folk.

Could you please express my sincere thanks to all the customers of Pee Gee's and the people of Karon for their warm and loving reception to myself and my family during a very sad time. In particular, my sincere thanks to Snowy for his help in helping Martin in what must have been dreadful circumstances, and also to Doc for looking after me and my father whilst on Phuket Island.

I would be more than happy to hear back from anyone in Karon who wishes to contact me.

For Paul's postal address please ring 086 151 1600 or email andamanpost@gmail.com
