

They buy a failing bar for a fire sale price, slap on a lick of paint and sell it on for a handsome profit. This solves two problems; First you don't have to run the bar yourself and secondly you don't have to show any actual figures. Nice work if you can get it.

A couple of bars in Patong have recently decided to encourage their own renovations. Jungle Juice on Nanai Road actually fell down one night when there were about a dozen punters and staff inside. Luckily no-one was badly hurt as the place was basically a wooden frame with a bamboo roof. It had been on the lean for quite awhile and this was evident when you noticed the pool table light was no longer over the centre of the table but shining light onto the
