

Motorcycle Helmets

Wearing a helmet when riding a motorbike is required by law in Thailand. Although the plastic ones usually on offer with rental bikes won't give much protection in an accident, at least it will save you a fine, as the local police are hot on this issue at the moment. The Phuket road toll is no joke and every little bit helps.

Health Tip

Present conditions for swimming in the waters around Phuket are not ideal. If you see a RED flag at any of the beaches it means it is not safe to swim there. Ignore it at your own peril, drowning can really put a downer on your holiday.
