

Continued from Page 3

Kim from South Africa (above) pulled out all stops for Nicky's 3rd birthday bash.

With an eminent panel of judges present, I was watching them frantically writing comments after each contestant passed by, I sure whomever represents the Andaman region for this year will do us proud.

*****

As the weather cools a little, all those souls who feel the urge to run, will be lining up for this years Laguna Phuket Triathlon. Held from the 29th November, the race is enjoying its 10th year and has become a major participant on the marathon circuit. Personally a good lie down wins it for me.

*****

The 17th King's Cup Regatta kicks off on the 5th of December for those with a sailing bent. Races take place on both sides of Phuket and the final event are run off Kata Beach reflecting where the sponsorship is coming from. Yachts from all over the world turn up for this event.

*****

Elvis (left) is alive and well and was seen belting out a tune at the Patong Carnival.

Right: The kebabs were only 20 baht each and as the lady says, two will make a meal.

Top Right: One of the more than 30 contestants who lined up for this year's Miss Andaman contest.

BEERGARDEN
Sukhumvit
Soi 4 Bangkok

COLD BEER INCL FOSTERS
AND VB - BUNDABERG RUM
- GREAT WESTERN & THAI FOOD
- ROAST LAMB, FISH & CHIPS
ETC.

WATCH ALL THE
RUGBY WORLD CUP ACTION