

The second ride got underway

At the third attempt.

"Have some fun", were the orders

And no one is exempt!

A two day ride, Krabi and back,
We had some new boys on the team.

A nice short trip with no sore bums
Would keep 'em razor keen.

Not even off the island
And we got a little hitch,
Glynn's brakes were giving trouble
And mine wouldn't start, "The Bitch".

We sorted out Glynn's problem
With just a short delay.
Helmets on, push me to start,
And we were underway.

"Phang Nga" for brunch, a little break,
Same place we stopped before.
But even after that short way

Some said their bums were sore!

The wind was up near cyclone force,

It made the going tough,
But nothing would have stopped us

As we strived to "strut our stuff"!

"Ao Nang" was calm and sheltered

A really pretty sight.

A nice hot shower, a few cold beers

"We'll have some fun tonight".

The "Irish Rovers Bar" was good

Next door to where we stay.

The lads relaxed with a pint of beer

Before going out to play.

I cannot put pen to paper

And tell the happenings of that night.

When married men get out to play

It's best kept out of sight!

The 2nd Bike Run

By the time they all had breakfast
And some began to moan,
We cracked the whip and moved them out.
It was time to head for home.

The "Monkey Temple" is half way home,
We stopped and did the tourist bit.

Glynn relaxed on a handy bench
And he sat down in "monkey shit".

"What's that awful smell?" he said.

"It seems to follow me".

The Thais were laughing also,
They said, "You sit in monkey kee".

Tony got the job to clean it off,
He made it look much worse.
We were falling down with laughter
As Glynn began to curse!

When Hendry crossed the Sarasin Bridge
It was his first ride off Phuket,

But the grin on his dial on Sunday
Said it's one he won't forget.

Brad took a lot of photos,
Some have a tale to tell,
He shows them to the wrong people
And he too will go to hell!

Home again, a well earned beer
A few stories to be told.
The truth gets stretched to breaking point
As another trip gets sold.

Six Hondas and a pick up truck
Made up our merry band.
Nine friends from all around the world
Having fun here in Thailand!

Motorcycle Helmets

Wearing a helmet when riding a motorbike is required by law in Thailand. As is an international license for the class of vehicle you are driving. As of October 1st the police have been instructed to enforce the law that says all those riding a motorbike must wear a helmet, not just the rider. If you are renting a motorbike and plan to carry a pillion passenger make sure you get two helmets.
